Queensland Corrective Services is dedicated to keeping the community safe. As a custodial correctional officer you will contribute to the safe and secure operation of a correctional centre or facility (including court, hospital or external escorts).

You will play a vital front line role in protecting the community as a member of one of Queensland's top public safety agencies. Working as part of a dedicated team, you will act as an agent of change to address offending behavior and encourage rehabilitation, making our communities safer by reducing reoffending.

You will serve Queensland with pride in a challenging and dynamic work environment, and will conduct your work with honour, accountability and transparency.

Experience and skills we are looking for:

- » Interpersonal skills and teamwork
- » Conflict management and negotiation
- » Problem solving and judgement
- » Communication (written and verbal)
- » Policy application (procedures and guidelines)
- » Drive and commitment
- » Self-management and resilience
- » Organisational fit
- » Computer skills

Career benefits:

- » Starting salary from $48,000, plus shift allowances where applicable. Certain post-secondary qualifications may attract a higher commencement salary.
- » Ongoing training and development opportunities including a 10-week training course to acquire a Certificate III in Correctional Practice.
- » Additional professional development opportunities.
- » Highly regarded superannuation scheme, leave loading and salary sacrificing opportunities.
